GIBBES MUSEUM OF ART EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING

The Gibbes Museum of Art has provided quality arts educational programming since its inception. As a key part of our 10-year strategic plan (2018–2028), we are committed to delivering education programs that incorporate art and employ interdisciplinary learning strategies. To continue our mission to make art accessible to all, many of these programs are offered at no cost to the schools or students.

2018–2019 EDUCATION BY THE NUMBERS

612 adult tour attendees participated in 39 tours, including 11 CURATOR-LED TOURS of the permanent collection, temporary exhibitions, or storage collection. 110 college students also participated in tours.

4,126 PreK–12 students participated in 83 tours. This includes 1,000 Title I students, fully covered by our ART ACCESS program.

1,077 students ages 4–12 attended the 34 SUMMER AND WINTER CAMP SESSIONS, including TEEN CAMP, and 9 were recipients of the Daniel West Fraser Scholarship Fund.

565 students participated in ART TO GO, EYE SPY, and IT STARTS WITH A DOT school-based, arts programs. 951 students participated in 7 experiences with Engaging Creative Minds.

36 unique STUDIO AND ART HISTORY CLASSES were offered for all ages.

OUR EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

ART TO GO, bringing hands-on art lessons to Title I schools inspired by exhibitions and works on view at the Gibbes. This program includes a mini-exhibition of the students’ work at the Gibbes.

EYE SPY, teaching visual and cultural literacy at Title I schools and those serving economically vulnerable communities.

IT STARTS WITH A DOT, teaching ekphrastic and creative writing to students at St. Johns High School, a Title I school on rural John’s Island, culminating in a published volume of poetry and original artwork by the students and a mini-exhibition of their artwork at the Gibbes. This program is in collaboration with the College of Charleston Creative Writing MFA program.

ART ACCESS, providing free field trips (including bus transportation) to all tri-county Title I students.

JUNIOR DOCENTS, enhancing research and presentation skills for local schools.

DANIEL WEST FRASER SCHOLARSHIP, providing free tuition to summer and day camps for students recommended by their teachers at Title I schools and those serving economically vulnerable communities.

STORY TIME AT THE GIBBES, encouraging literacy and introducing young families to the Gibbes. This program is in partnership with the Charleston County Public Library and is offered free for all guests.

All of our in-school educational programs include a visit to the Gibbes Museum of Art.
