

Image Resource Guide

Image reproductions of the Gibbes Museum of Art's (GMA) collections, garden, grounds, and building may be licensed for scholarly or commercial use. For a high quality TIFF file for publication, please contact Amanda Breen at abreen@gibbesmuseum.org. All requests are reviewed on an individual basis and fees may apply. Copying or redistributing images of the GMA's collection, garden, grounds, and building in any form for personal or corporate commercial gain is prohibited.

- Requests must be submitted at least six weeks prior to the date the image(s) are needed to ensure adequate processing time. Additional time may be required if object(s) require relocation from the galleries or conservation assistance to prepare the object(s) for new photography.
- Requests must include the name of the requester, intended use, author(s), and publisher(s), anticipated date of publication, and requested collection image.
- Image(s) will not be provided to the requester until the payment fee, if applicable, is received by the GMA.
- The GMA reserves the right to refuse permission for inappropriate use and to charge fees different from those presented on the fee schedule.
- Permission, should it be granted, is for one-time use only, and for the intended purpose as stated on the application form. Any subsequent use, including but not limited to multiple editions, use in advertising or promotion, reprints, translations, and video editions, constitutes a re-use and must be applied for in writing. There is a charge for re-use of an image.

Scholarly Use

Includes, but is not limited to: books; exhibition catalogues and similar publications by libraries, museums, and non-profit organizations; public-television broadcasts; and other items made available to a relatively limited audience.

Commercial Use

Includes, but is not limited to: for-profit publications (textbooks, trade books, reference books, supplemental course readers, and curriculum materials for K-12), motion pictures, commercial television, video productions, large-circulation or mass market magazines, printed or televised advertisements, calendars, posters, museum reproductions, and other items made available to a relatively wide audience.

Credit Line

All images provided by the GMA shall carry the credit line Image Courtesy of the Gibbes Museum of Art/Carolina Art Association preceded by identification of the object(s). Image(s) should be reproduced in its entirety (ie. No cropping) unless permission is granted. Use of a specific detail from the image must be approved in advance by the GMA.

Publication Gratis Copies

The GMA would appreciate receiving a gratis copy of all publications containing works from the GMA's collection in order to retain a record of how image reproductions are utilized.

Copyright

Please note that the GMA owns only the physical object, and does not assume responsibility for intellectual property, including copyright, or any other legal issues involved in the publication and reproduction of items in the collection. The GMA's preparation and/or reproduction fees do not include any fees due to the copyright owner or administrator (artist, representing gallery, estate, etc.). Any and all responsibility for questions regarding copyright will be assumed by the applicant.